NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU,
HIGH POINT, N. C., Feb. 9

Tom Wiles, of Randleman, spent last night in town.

Frank Gurley went to Asheboro this morning on a business trip.

H. W. Fraser left this morning for Lenoir and other town in the western part of the state.

Miss Dell Watson, of Greensboro, went to Lexington last night, after spending two weeks here with her sister, Mrs. North.

D. T. Marable and T. W. Anderson are spending the day in Greensboro on business.

No. 36 was two hours late yesterday, therefore our news did not reach Greensboro in time to be published, which we regret very much.

ENTERTAINMENT.

To be Given at The State Normal Tomorrow Night.

On Friday night, February 10th the students of The State Normal and Industrial College will give an entertainment complimentary to the legislative committee. One of the chief objects of this entertainment is to give the friends of the College in Greensboro an opportunity of meeting socially for a few minutes, the members of the legislative committee. There will, therefore, be no charge for admission to the entertainment, and the general public will be welcomed.

The doors will not be open until 7:45 and the entertainment will begin at 8:15. Charles D. McIver, President.

What an Ad Did.

The Telegram this afternoon received orders from the C. W. Jennings Fruit Co. to leave their advertising space blank until further notice. This is done because the company already has more orders than it can possibly fill, though they have just received a large shipment of bananas, oranges and other tropical fruits. Mr. Jennings says the rush is the direct result of his ad in this paper, very few of the orders being from old customers. They contracted for space only a few days ago and the rush came unexpectedly. Hereafter they will be prepared for any number of orders and fill them promptly.

Having a Big Time.

J. F. Jordan, who accompanied the party of fox hunters to Manchester, returned home yesterday afternoon. He brought with him a good sized fox which was caught after a lively chase. He says the hunters are having a fine time. Mr. Hudson, one of the party, ordered some oysters and crackers to be sent him today. This fact will no doubt lend to the desire of the rest of our Reynard chasers to take part in the festivities.

Attempt Burglary.

A futle attempt to breaks into Vuncannon & Co's. store, on South Elm street, was made last night. The would-be burglars only succeeded in breaking the foot-latch off the front door, evidently using a chisel to do the work. This was very little headway, as Mr. Vunconnon has three heavy locks on the door, which is further strengthened by heavy bars.

With Parental Consent.

Mr. Luther Morefield and Miss Annie Hood, who came here yesterday from Danville, were married at 10 o'clock last night at the residence of Rev. L. Johnson who officiated. The parental consent was received on the evening mail and Mr. Kirkman issued the license forthwith. The Telegram extends congratulations

An Eye to Business.

That sees and seizes your opportunity, will make you comfortable, and, perhaps, rich.

One great chance now awaits your good judgement at our store. Flanneletts, outings, Worsteds and heavy underwear at prices that will justify you in purchasing, and even laying away for future use. A splendid line of shoes that we must move to make room for spring goods. Any style, any size, any price. 514 South Elm street. J. E. Scott.

Forged in Statesville.

It appears that Dunn, alias Link, though an amateur forger, did not do his first work in this line in Greensboro and High Point. A short while before his trouble here he passed a check, purporting to be signed by J. C. Davis, on J. G. Shelton, a clothier of Statesville. He purchased a suit of clothes and received the balance of a $60 check, in cash. Mr. Shelton was here today and identified Dunn as the man who "done" him credit.

Coming Tomorrow.

The committee from the legislature will arrive here tomorrow evening to spend Saturday inspecting the State Normal and Industrial College. They will spend tomorrow in Chapel Hill inspecting the University.

QUIET IN THE PHILIPPINES

So Dewey Cabled to the Department Today.

AGUINALDO WITHOUT SUPPORT.

Half the Inhabitants Want the United States to Assume Full Control. Filipinos in Disguise.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Feb. 9—The following cablegram was received from Admiral Dewey this morning:

After continued interference and intimidation of our workmen, I ordered the armed insurgents to leave San Roque. They left during the night, only a few remaining, who burned the village this morning. Our troops are now in possession of the village. All is quiet.

AGUINALDO IS MAD.

New Haven, Feb. 9—Lieutenant Howard of the cruiser Boston, who spent the entire summer at Manila, says: "I have met Aguinaldo and talked to him frequently through an interpreter. He is mercenary and mad and makes no secret of his real motive. The policy of the United States to crush him is correct and should have been in operation sooner. Half of the inhabitants of the Philippines behave properly and are eager for the United States to assume full control. The rest are influenced in some political manner by Aguinaldo. This weeks fighting leaves him without support."

GENERALS IN DISGUISE.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Manila, Feb. 9—At noon the Filipinos generals whose forces were so unmercifully punished by King's brigade Sunday, were deported and fled to the interior in disguise, to escape violence at the hands of the people. The officers in command of the main body of the army have asked Aguinaldo to send reinforcements, but they do not want any more Tagadas.

CHINESE MATTERS.

England Advises China to Concede Nothing to France.

By Cable To THE TELEGRAM.

Vancouver, Feb. 9.—Pekin mail advices say the British government has advised the Chinese government not to concede an extension of the French settlement in Shanghai under any circumstance, adding that Great Britain will assist China to oppose any pressure and to resist any threats of force.

CHILDREN DROWNED.

Vancouver, Feb. 9.—According to advices from the Orient, Chinese rebels raided Kneifee recently and seized and drowned several hundred children who were under care of Roman Catholics.

EARTHQUAKES.

Inhabitants are Alarmed and are Fasting and Praying.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Bellen, N. M., Feb. 9—The inhabitants of this place are much alarmed over a series of earthquake shocks which have recently occurred, and have betaken themselves to fasting and praying.

IN KENTUCKY.

Maysville, Ky., Feb. 9—Pronounced earthquake vibrations were felt here this morning.

Washington, Feb. 9—Gen. Eagan has decided to go to Hawaii soon. He will live on a coffee plantation with his son, who is a planter. The general will superintend the plantation. Before leaving the United States he may ask for his retirement under the thirty year service law.

Terriffic Weather.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Skifforn, Feb. 9—Terriffic weather prevails on the Irish coast. Great quantities of wreckage has washed ashore, mostly of a character indicating that the lost vessels were lumber laden.

J. M. Hendrix & Co. advertised yesterday six pair of $4.00 Elkin blankets to be closed out at $3.00. This morning they sold half of them and have three pair left, and they say you will be left if you don't get a pair of them. The old story repeated—place your ad in the Telegram if you want it read.

MR. KREHBIEL IN N. Y. TRIBUNE.

Splendid Commendations From a Notable Authority.

What the Musical Courier of November 23rd, 1898, says of Mr. Krehbiel:

"Mr. Krehbiel's ability as an analytical writer on music is so unquestioned, his general scholarship so ripe and accurate, his acquaintance with musicians and audiences so intimate, his experience as a concert-goer so long, that no one is better qualified than he is to tell people how to listen to music."

What Mr. Krehbiel, musical critic of the N. York Tribune, says of Godfrey's Band:

"Lieutenant Dan Godfrey was most heartily welcomed to New York last night

"The enthusiasm which greeted Godfrey and his men when they made their bow with the national airs of the United States and Great Britain, grew with each number, and spoke defiance to the heart.

"The band is an excellent military organization, fine and sonorous in tone, accurate and elastic in utterance.

"It is really admirable, much of its excellence being due to the skill of the men who handle the principal solo instruments. It is seldom that the public is privileged to hear such honest, straightforward, unaffected, completely musical cornet-playing, as Mr. Kettlewell put to his credit last night, whilst Lieutenant Godfrey's familiarity with the tastes of the American public seems to be complete and much pleasure can be counted upon from his visit."—New York Tribune, July 4th, 1898.

The above, one of the grandest and best musical organizations that ever toured the United States, will appear in the chapel of the Greensboro Female College at night March 9th.

Whitsett Items.

Correspondence Telegram

Whitsett, N. C., Feb. 9.

Students are still coming in. F. F. Fort, of Oxford, entered school recently.

A. H. Olive, the photographer, is doing some fine work and lots of it.

Prof. Tinnin has a large vocal class which meets in the institute each Saturday at 10 a. m.

The boys did some much needed work on the ball ground Saturday. They are getting themselves ready to meet their enemy by practicing each evening.

Col J. R Huffin is very sick at this writing.

Our athletic association has been organized with the following officers: Prof. J. Henry Joyner, president; Prof. E. T. Bugess, stcretary and treasurer; Prof. W. T. Whitsett, corresponding secretary; A. H. Olive, umpire; S. C. Taylor, captain. The association will be known as the Whitsett Institute Athletic Association.

The mail has been several hours late this week on account of the branches being up, and having to go several miles out of the way to get to Gibsonville.

Ernest Clapp spent Sunday with his parents at this place.

The sociable given for the students in the institute last Saturday was an enjoyable affair. Dr. Whitsett read several selections, after which he hypnotized four or five of the boys. Then the fun began. He had them doing several laughable things.

The male students have been divided into three parties, democrat, republican and populist. Representatives from several counties have been appointed as committees. The legislature will meet in the hall Saturday night, and will be carried on as it is in Raleigh at the present time. It is done for the benefit of the students.

EIGHT BELOW.

Growing Colder and a Coal Famine is Threatened.

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 8.—A coal famine is threatened throughout Kentucky. T. B. Cassidy, of the coal agency representing eleven mines, says that to his knowledge the coal supply will not last longer that 24 hours in any town in Kentucky. The mines are all flooded and it is impossible to get coal. The temperature in this city is eight below zero and it is growing colder. Only one coal yard has coal, and its supply is limited.

DESPERATE TIME.

New York Firemen Fight Fire in Snow and Ice.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Feb. 9—The firemen had a desperate time subduing the fire that destroyed a block at Moore and Whitehead streets, which caused a loss of half a million dollars. Hydrants were frozen and the sidewalks and ladders dangerously iced. The fire started in the Walter Bull bag factory. A hundred and fifty girls employed there rushed to the street in a panic. Hartman's saloon and the Eastern hotel were burned. Four other firms were burnt out.

THE CONGRESSIONAL MILL

Has a Large Grist of Public Building Bills.

PRITCHARD ASKS FOR 83,500.000

For Improvement of The Harbor of Refuge at Cape Lookout—No Change in Ewart's Case.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Feb. 9—Senator Pritchard, of North Carolina, has introduced an amendment which he hopes to have added by the senate to the river and harbor appropriation bill which is now pending before the senate committee on commerce. The amendment of Senator Pritchard proposes to appropriate $200,000 for the improvement of the harbor of refuge at Cape Lookout, North Carolina, and further authorizes the secretary of war to enter into contracts for material and labor for the completion of said project, as appropriations may be made from time to time, not to exceed the sum of three million, five hundred thousand dollars. The senator will, it is said, be given an opportunity by the committee on commerce to urge the improvement desired, which is very important to North Carolina.

The committee on commerce resumed its consideration of the river and harbor bill yesterday morning, holding a session from 10 o'clock in the morning until twelve o'clock and then took a recess until two o'clock, remaining in session during the afternoon for some time. During the day many senators appeared before the committee to urge additional items in which they are interested. So far as could be learned neither of the North Carolina senators have yet appeared before the senate committee, but as stated it is expected that Senator Pritchard will be given a hearing, if he desires it The hearings will close with the adjournment of the committee this evening, and the work hereafter will be directed towards perfecting the bill. The house bill will be adopted by the committee as the basis, and amendments which the committee desires to incorporate will be added. The members of the committee say that the bill should be reported to the senate during the next weeek, and they hope that the senate will take it up and dispose of it promptly.

The North Carolina delegation in congress are hopeful that the bills reported from the committee on public buildings and grounds to provide for public buildings at Elizabeth City, Durham, and Winston, may be passed by the house. The bills have been reported favorably from the committee of the whole, and will probably go through with the remainder of the bills reported. The fate of these bills in the senate is doubtful. There are a large number of public building bills involved, effecting, it was stated by Mr. Mercer, of Nebraska, chairman of the house committee, thirty-eight states of the Union. If the time of the session remaining were not so short, there is no doubt but the senate would pass the bills promptly, but with adjournment so close at hand, only twenty-five days, and the rush of bills coming over fnom the house daily becoming larger, there is much doubt felt as to whether the senate will act upon very many bills of this character.

There are no new developments in the case of Judge Ewart. It was expected that Senator Hoar, in executive session would call the case up last night. Senator Butler was seen yesterday afternoon, but had nothing new upon the subject to give out. Judge Ewart's friends say that he will be confirmed whenever his opponents consent to a vote being taken.

C. J. Harris, a well known citizen of Asheville, is at the Metropolitan Hytel. Mr. Harris will be in Washington for some days.

L. C. Watson, of Lenoir, North Carolina, was at the National Hotel yesterday.

Special Service in North Carolina has been discontinued as follows: Profit, Wilkes county, from Elkville. From February 14th.

Maggie D. Parker has been commissioned postmaster at Averasboro.

SIDE TRACKED.

As Seen By an Apt Critic in Atlanta Last Week.

The capacity of the grand opera house was taxed to its utmost last night, hundreds of people being unable to gain admittance. The attraction was the ever popular comedy, Side Tracked, which, like good wine, grows better with each succeeding season. The reception given the company was an ovation, each of the old favorites receiving a hearty recognition. Mr. E. H O'Conor, with his inimitable characterization of the funny tramp, installed himself more firmly than ever in the hearts of his auditors, his work with the vivacious soubrette, Miss Gertrude Barnes, being particularly pleasing. She is one of the brightest little women on the stage. Billy Bowers, as Fritz Grabholt, gave an artistic representation of the guileless German and divided honors with Mr. W. Healy, the policeman, in a very clever specialty. There are many new features in the performance this season and each in turn received merited recognition in the way of applause and encores galore. All the specialties were original and strictly up-to-date. There was not a bad feature or mediocre number in the whole performance. Miss Cecile Lorraine rendered a very fine operatic selection, "I love you so," and responded to a hearty encore in a way which proves her a talented vocalist in addition to her dramatic ability. A patriotic trio in the picturesque national colors of the United States, Great Britain and Cuba, received the hearty approbation of the audience. In fact the entire company gave evidence that they can sing as well as act, and kept their auditors in a constant good humor through a very enjoyable evening. Side Tracked is constructed to amuse, and if anyone wishes to see pretty girls, fine costumes and hear bright, original music well sung, and comedy that is funny, see Side Tracked.

THURSDAY, FEB. 9, 1899.

Does it pay to advertise? Any way John Wanamaker, the dry goods prince of Philadelphia, has engaged the entire last page of every weekly issue of the Philadelphia Record for a period of two years. That is to say, every day for the next two years, Sunday alone excepted, he will have an entire page in the Philadelphia Record. He says he owes his success to the newspapers, and gives them a certain amount of his profits.

Col. J. S. Carr has severed his connection with the Blackwell Tobacco Factory in Durham. Some time ago it was announced that he had disposed of his stock to the Union Tobacco Company, of New York, but that he would continue as president of the Blackwell Company. Now, the Durham Sun says after being "inseparably linked together for nearly three-quarters of a century" Col. Carr retires. Really the genial, handsome and young looking colonel cannot be that old. The Sun is mistaken about the time, but is right when it says "he is of that class of liberal-hearted, public-spirited men who always make the wheels move whenever he takes hold of a thing." The Telegram does not know in what busines Col. Carr will engage, but it wishes him success.

A number of papers have copied a recent editorial note from this paper and made the application to their own towns, among which are the Durham Sun and Greenville Reflector. We re-copy from the Reflector as follows, feeling that an ther reading of the thoughts therein expressed will do no harm:

The following timely thoughts are taken from the editorial columns of the Greensboro Telegram, and if you will substitute Greenville where the name of Greensboro appears, they will apply with equal force to this town: How many blacksmith shops, coachmakers, wheelrights, tinners, painters, plasterers, etc., are there in Greensboro, and who are they? The newspaper columns are watched for their ads and they are not found. The editor is asked, often, about these departments and is at a loss to give information. And where are the upholsterers, mattress makers, etc? They are frequently asked abont. Where are the brokers and real estate agents? They advertise very little. All of these have an important part to perform in building the city, and their advertisements in the local papers go far towards showing to the world that the town is on the move. Let every man get a shoulder to the wheel. Too many people refuse to say a word unless they see that word is going to bring them, individually and immediately, large returns. It is the constant drop that wears the rock, and bread cast upon the waters will return after many days. That is, it may not return immediately; but it will return if it takes many days to do it.

THE DEMOCRATS WIN.

It is Sheriff Fleming and Ex-Sheriff Cozart in Granville.

Oxford, N. C., Feb. 8—The long continued case to decide who is sheriff of Granville, was settled today. The jury decided that Mr. Fleming, the democratic candidate, had been elected.

Upon hearing that the jury in Granville had decided in favor of the democrat, a Durham gentleman in Raleigh said: "That shows how a few votes count. Just a few days before the election, Jule Carr heard that there were several Granville men in Durham who said they could not go home to vote. Mr. Carr paid their way and their votes gave Granville a democratic sheriff."—Special to News and Observer.

To Give Up Every Vice.

"Well, sir," demanded Horatio Bullion, "what particular reason have you to offer for asking me to let you have my daughter Gladys?"

"I—I love her, and she loves me," Reginald Biddlethwaite replied.

"Oh, of course," the blunt old magnate retorted. "I've heard that song from half a dozen others. That's to be taken for granted. But what other qualifications have you?"

"I must confess," the trembling young man answered, "that I am not rich, but I can truthfully say that I have no expensive habits. I don't drink. I don't gamble. I don't chew tobacco. I don't smoke. I don't"—

"Hold on!" the millionaire broke in. "That's enough! You'll do. Your board and clothes won't cost much more than the gas you've been burning lately. What I object to is supporting fellows like my other three sons-in-law, who have all the faults you say you have not. I don't mind furnishing the husbands of my daughters with the necessaries of life, but I do hate to have to settle the bills for their luxuries. Now, there is just one other point I want to have settled before I give my consent."

"What is that?" Mr. Biddlethwaite eagerly asked.

"Promise me that you will not start a newspaper. The others have all tried it, and I can't stand many more such experiences."

Reginald's promise made three hearts happy.—Cleveland Leader.

Vaseline Pancakes.

Cæsar's creek, on the Florida coast, was named after a famous old pirate called Black Cæsar, whose profession added to the risks of marine insurance. After the pirates the Florida wreckers came, of whom H. A. Willoughby, in his "Across the Everglades," tells this story:

A large steamer was stranded on the reef not far from Cape Florida. No sooner had she struck than the news spread rapidly along the shore. The people for 20 miles around gathered on the beach opposite the stranded steamer. Among them were a number of Indians from the Everglades, who chanced to be down there and knew what a "wreck" meant to the wreckers.

The steamer, loaded with an assorted cargo, began to break up, and barrels, cases and boxes drifted gradually ashore. There were casks of wine, boxes of soap, cases of bottles of wine and iron and a hundred other articles. The Indians seized upon the wine and soon were in a condition that allowed the white men to secure the more valuable prizes.

The squaws struck a bonanza in a case of vaseline. They thought it a new variety of the white man's frying fat and, starting a fire, fried pancakes in it. What a dish—pancakes a la Seminole!

Messages by Vibration.

Curiously enough, the fact appears, according to a recent traveler among the Indians of Catuquinarn, between the rivers Embrya and Embyrasu, that those people have long employed a wireless telephony, but rather after the order of unwritten science.

It is made by digging a hole in the ground inside a house and laying the bottom with coarse sand, well piled. On this is laid a wooden drum or hollow cylinder of wood, half filled with fine sand and layers of broken wood, bone and powdered mica—the upper part of the cylinder, which is empty, rising above the floor of the hut and closed first by leather, then by wood, and lastly by india rubber. Outside, the cylinder is packed round with fragments of wood, leather and resins, and covered with hard rubber at the level of the soil.

To use this peculiar apparatus the drum is struck by a wooden hammer, and the vibration is evidently transmitted through the soil. The answer is heard in the drum, which acts as a reconator, and messages are thus sent over 1,500 yards from house to house.

Politics, Indeed.

"There is a rather crusty old gentleman attending my church," says a Detroit clergyman, "and his absence for several weeks led me to call upon him. He is not a communicant, and I am afraid at times that he is slightly skeptical. He is very pronounced in his political views, and as conversational material ran rather short I sought to interest him by asking, 'How's politics?'

"'How's politics?' he repeated without a change of countenance. 'How's politics? That's a pretty question for you to ask when you know that I haven't heard you preach for the last seven Sundays.'"—Exchange.

The Story of a Letter.

The National Advertiser tells a story of an old bachelor who bought a pair of socks and found attached to one of them a slip of paper with these words: "I am a young lady of 20 and would like to correspond with a bachelor with a view to matrimony." Name and address were given.

The bachelor wrote, and in a few days got this letter: "Mamma was married 20 years ago. The merchant you bought those socks from evidently did not advertise or he would have sold them long ago. Mamma handed me your letter and said possibly I might suit you. I am 18 years old."

For Insomnia.

A curious remedy for sleeplessness is used by the inhabitants of the Samoan islands. They confine a snake in a hollow bamboo, and the hissing sound emitted by the reptile is said to quickly induce slumber.

"Ladies and gentlemen," said an Irish manager to an audience of three, "as there is nobody here, I'll dismiss you all. The performance of this night will not be performed, but will be repeated tomorrow evening."

Eggs from Australia are landed in London in such perfect preservation that they are sold as new laid.

The Sure La Grippe Cure.

There is no use suffering from this dreadful malady, if you will only get the right remedy. You are having pain all through your body, your liver is out of order, have no appetite, no life or ambition, have a bad cold, in fact are completely used up. Electric Bitters is the only remedy that will give you prompt and sure relief. They act directly on your liver, stomach and kidneys, tone up the whole system and make you feel like a new being. They are guaranteed to cure or price refunded. For sale at C. E. Holton's drug store. Only 50 cents per bottle.

FIRST TO GROW ORANGES.

Jesuits Introduced Them Into the Pelican State.

The orange of Louisiana is an exceptionally fine variety of that fruit, and commands a good price in the market. The orange was first introduced into colonial Louisiana by the Jesuits, having been first grown by the members of the society on their grounds, which formerly comprised that part of the city of New Orleans which constitutes the lower part of the first district, down to Common street.

While St. Bernard and Plaquemines parishes are the chief centers of the orange culture of Louisiana, the fruit also grows well in the parishes of Orleans, Jefferson, St. James, St. John Baptist, St. Charles, Assumption, St. Mary, Terrebonne, Lafourche, Vermilion, Cameron, Iberia and Sabine. The orange tree begins to bear at about the seventh year, although it is not reckoned to have reached its full growth until its twelfth or fifteenth year.

The orange culture in Louisiana is probably the most profitable industry of the state under favorable conditions, a full grown tree producing from 3,000 to 5,000 oranges, the fruit on the tree generally selling for $10 a thousand, and as some of the largest orchards in the state yield as many as 3,000,000 oranges their market value gives a princely income to the owners of the trees. Comparatively a very small acreage of the state is devoted to the growth of oranges—possibly not more than 2,000 acres.

The sweetness, delicacy and juiciness of the Louisiana orange, the best of which are regarded in the markets outside of Louisiana as superior to even the oranges of Cuba, to which island the fruit is indigenous, render the Louisiana oranges highly prized in the north and west of the United States, so much so that the supply is not by any means equal to the demand.—New Orleans [illegible]ayune.

Posing as a Hercules.

"I could tell you a story about 'strong men photography.' Some of the minor limbs of the fraternity depend on the cunning of the camera for advertisement." So said a photographer.

"One fellow, who visits country fairs and casual shows, goes through tricks of a kind wonderful to the unscientific mind. They are merely tricks after all, and his strength is a catch. He depends on his photos for advertisement. In posing he folds his arms tightly, dilates the muscles of his neck and lines his veins with prussian blue. His picture gives you Hercules in his power of majesty. In private he is a well developed man, without any swagger of sinew or strength.

"Professional strong men are as clever at make up as a society actress. The latter lavishes attention on face and neck, while breast and ribs, muscles and throat occupy the former for hours ere the camera confronts them. A few lines about the body add pounds to the weight of a strong man (in the picture); a studied pose imparts additional formidability.

"The veins of a certain professional Hercules protrude like whipcord in the photographic cabinet. He dusts them with powdered ultramarine and treats the high parts of the muscles with indian red. Otherwise his picture would appear quite ordinary."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

A Nice Little Hint For George.

A business man has a daughter and also a confidential clerk, and the confidential clerk has for some time been attentive to the daughter, but he has not—or had not a month ago—sufficient courage to come to the point, though the young woman, goodness knows, has never done anything to scare him off, for he is a first class fellow in every respect. The other evening he was making a call and about 9 o'clock her father came in.

"Ah, George," he said, "how about that deal we were talking about this afternoon? Did you see the party?"

"Yes, sir," replied George, "and I expected to see you this evening and tell you about it."

"My dear," said the father, turning to his daughter, "will you retire for a few minutes? George wants to speak business for awhile."

The daughter rose up, but hesitated.

"Why do I have to go?" she asked doubtfully.

"Because, dear," smiled the father, "you are not interested. Why do you want to stay?"

She blushed and started out.

"Because, papa," she twittered, "I'd rather like to hear George talk business just once."

Then George got red and the father looked at them both significantly, and the girl fled.—London Answers.

Praise For the Bishop.

The bishop of—never mind where—being a newcomer and somewhat troubled with a neglected diocese, thought to inspire his clergy to take occasional services during the week by periodically visiting out of the way parishes and taking one himself.

On one of these occasions, having formed quite a good congregation and having been moved to much eloquence in his sermon, he felt a little not unnatural desire to know if he had made any impression on the usually unimpressionable yokels, and put some leading questions to the old clerk, who was helping him to unrobe in the vestry. "Well, I hope they've been pleased with yer," said the old man patronizingly, "and I'm sure we tuk it werry kind o' yer worship to come down and preach to us, but, yer knaw, a worsser one would ha' done for the likes o' we, if so be," he added with becoming humility, "one could ha' bin found."—Living Church.

Martello Towers In England.

Whatever may have been the defensive value of martello towers a century ago it has entirely evaporated now. There are a good many of them on the coasts of Essex, Suffolk, Kent and Sussex. These massive round towers, some 40 feet high, were regarded as and very likely were splendid defenses at the time they were erected, but they have long been used only for coastguard purposes. Their name is derived from the Italian coast towers which were erected as a protection against pirates. Warning that a suspicious craft was in sight was given by striking a bell with a martello or hammer. It was the powerful defense made in 1794 by Le Tellier at the tower of Mortella with only 88 men against a simultaneous sea and land attack, led by Lord Hood and Major General Dundas, which brought them into favor in this country. It was thought that they would be a splendid defense against "Boney."—London Chronicle.

Ancient Glassmaking.

When the council of ten ruled Venice, they issued a decree regarding the art of glassmaking. It runs: "If a workman carry his art beyond the limits of his country to the detriment of the republic, he shall be desired to return. If he disobey, his nearest relatives shall be imprisoned. If, in spite of their imprisonment, he remain obstinate in his wish to live abroad, an emissary shall be told off to kill him."

French Humor.

Madame (to her chambermaid)—Justine, the doorbell rang.

"Is madame sure it wasn't the clock?"

"Couldn't be—it is only quarter of 10."

"Yes, but madame knows the clock is fast!"—Echo de Paris.

The little Japs are about as free from the vice of drunkenness as any people in the world. In fact, it is the rarest thing in the world to see an inebriated subject of the mikado. The native drink, "saki," is used about as tea in this country, and it is but little more intoxicating.

NORTH CAROLINA,
GUILFORD COUNTY.

By virtue of the powers conferred upon me in a certain order made by the Superior Court of Guilford county in a cause therein pending, entitled Mrs Nellie Albright, et al., ex parte, I will, as commissioner, sell at the court house door in Greensboro on the first Monday in March, (it being the sixth day) to the highest bidder at public auction for cash, the following described land and premises, to-wit:

A house and lot on Cedar street, in the city of Greensboro and fronting on said street 62½ feet and running back about 200 feet and adjoining the lands of T. M. Pickard on the north, Bob Aiken on the south, J. W. Richardson on the west, and others, containing one-half of one acre, more or less. Upon which is situated a nice five room cottage, good well and a barn. It being the home place of Joe Albright, deceased.

Opening of the Social Season and Inauguration of the Magnificent

New York & Florida Limited Service

JANUARY 16, 1899.

The opening of the Florida season will be signalized this year as usual by the placing in service of the "New York and Florida Limited" between New York and St. Augustine, Fla This is acknowledged to be the finest train in the world, in its appointments, luxury and detail of finish, and the first of these trains was constructed by the Pullman company for the use of the President of the United States on official tours.

"The New York and Florida Limited" leaves New York daily except Sunday at 11:50 a. m., via the pennsylvania Railroad, the Southern Railway, Florida Central & Peninsular R. R. and the Florida East Coast Railway, and reaches St. Augustine at 2.20 p. m. the following day, making the run, which exceeds 1,000 miles, in little more than twenty-four hours. No train has attracted so much attention, and its fame has been heralded wherever railroading is known. It is composed of Pullman compartment cars, each room being finished in different woods and supplied with private lavatory and toilet; Pullman drawing-room sleeping cars of the latest pattern and finish; a royal club car for the gentlemen; an observation car with a handsome drawing room at its rear opening on to a wide platform; a library car, and dining car, in which the service and the cuisine rank with the finest New York hotels. This "New York and Florida Limited" runs through solid to St. Augustine with the exception of one car which is detached at Columbia, S. C., and goes through to Aiken, which it reaches at 9:35 the next morning after leaving New York, and Augusta at 9:50. Brunswick and Jeckyl Island are conveniently reached by this train at 12 o'clock noon through the perfect connections afforded at Everett, Ga.

There are two other fine trains between New York ond Florida via "The Florida Short Line," one the "Washington and Southwestern Vestibule Limited," leaving New York at 4:20 p. m. daily, and the "United States Fast Mail," leaving New York at 12:05 midnight. The former train carries through Pullman drawing room sleeping cars between New York, Jacksonville and Tampa, and also offers Pullman sleeping car service between New York and Augusta, Ga., with connections for Aiken, Brunswick and Jekyl Island. The latter carries through drawing room sleeping cars between New York and Jacksonville, connecting with parlor car service to points on F. C. & P. R. R. and F. E. C. Ry. Dining cars are operated on all trains of the Southern Ry. "The Florida Short Line" in connection with the Florida East Coast Railway to Miami offers the most direct, quickest and delightful service to Nassau, Havana and Key West. For full information, reservations, etc., apply to J. L. Adams, G. E. A., F. C. & P. R. R., 353 Broadway, New York, or to A. S. Thweatt, E. P. A., Southern Ry, 271 Broadway, New York.

La Grippe is again epidemic. Every precaution should be taken to avoid it. Its specific cure is One Minute Cough Cure. A. J. Shepherd, publisher Agricultural Journal and Advertiser, Elden, Mo., says: "No one will be disappointed in using One Minute Cough Cure for La Grippe." Pleasant to take, quick to act. Howard Gardner.

The half-clad body of J. D. Clark, a lumber drummer, was found on a bridge at Nashville, Tenn., and he is under arrest.

An Honest Medicine for La Grippe.

George W. Waitt of South Gardiner, Mo., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grip and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vender. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one 50-cent bottle and the chills, cold and grip have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine." For sale by C. E. Holton.

The legality of Governor Leedy's call for an extra session of the Kansas legislature has been sustained.

For La Grippe

Thomas Whitfield & Co., 250 Wabash ave., corner Jackson st., one of Chicago's oldest and most prominent druggists, recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for la grippe, as it not only gives a prompt and complete relief, but also counteracts any tendency of la grippe to result in pneumonia. For sale by C. E. Holton.

After religious services over Col. Sexton's remains at Chicago, Ill, today the body will be cremated.

Dangers of the Grip.

The greatest danger trom La Grippe is of its resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for la grippe we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure la grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by C. E. Holton.

The late Alonzo L. Kane, of Milwaukee, Wis., provided in his will for a $500,000 trust fund for charity.

The Deadly Grip

Is again abroad in the land. The air you breathe may be full of its fatal germs! Don't neglect the "Grip" or you will open the door to Pneumonia and Consumption and invite death. Its sure signs are chills with fever, headache, dull heavy pains, mucous discharges from the nose, sore throat and never-let-go cough. Don't waste precious time treating this cough with troches, tablets, or poor, cheap syrups. Cure it at once with Dr. King's New Discovery, the infallible remedy for bronchial troubles. It kills the disease germs, heals the lungs and prevents the dreaded after effects from the malady. Price 50c and $1.00. Money back if not cured. A trial bottle free at C. E. Holton's drugstore.

CANNOT BE TOO STRONG.

Trusts Are, Morally Speaking, Outside the Pale of Civilization.

"The anti-trust bill of Mr. Stevens, of Union, will come this afternoon before the house committee to which it was referred. We hope it will secure a favorable report and pass both houses. It has been suggested that it is immoral in that it provides that no trust can collect a bill by law. This is the bill's best feature. Desperate diseases call for desperate remedies. Trusts are, morally speaking, outside the pale of civilization. No measure which will in any degree check their aggression is too strong. Mr. Stevens' bill ought to be made a law."—Charlotte Observer.

Audience Well Pleased.

The Graphophone-Grand Concert at the Auditorium, last night, far surpassed anything ever heard here in the Graphophone line. The audience was well pleased with the entertainment. You can spend an hour or more very pleasantly by attending the concert tonight, which closes the engagement. We bespeak for Mr. Rivenbark, the clever manager, a large house tonight.—Winston Sentinel.

A DELIGHTFUL CONCERT.

The Louise Brehany Concert at the Academy Last Night.

A very large and select audience greeted the Louise Brehany Concert Company at the academy of music last night. All of Greensboro's most enthusiastic music lovers and a large number of the music students at Greensboro Female College attended and the entertainment was thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated by them. The company is one of the best that ever visited Greensboro, every member rendering his or her part in the most skilful and gifted manner. Mr. W. Guillaume Sauvlet, the pleasing pianist, is easily one of the best in this country, and it is doubtful if he can be excelled anywhere. His piano solo, 1st Gavotte, composed by himself, is a charming piece of music and was generously applauded.

Though every member of the company is good, Mr. Sauvlet and Louise Brehany are undoubtedly the most skilful. Louise Brehany is possessed of a rich, sweet, soprano voice, which she displays no effort whatever in raising to the highest pitch, and her singing captured the audience. Her rendition of "The Last Rose of Summer" was especially fine.

Thanks to Prof. Brockman and Mr. Blackburn for securing such an excellent company for Greensboro.

"The Only Good One."

Side Tracked at the academy of music tomorrow night is the only good show in sight for the present, and well it is, for you will have fun enough to last you for a while. Don't fail to see this one. Prices 25, 50 and 75 cents. Tickets on sale
